

List of Publications: John Quintero

Articles

“The Public Price of Growing Old: Aging and North Carolina” in North Carolina Insight (forthcoming).

“North Carolina’s Adult Education System” in North Carolina Insight (forthcoming).

“Buying Local Hospital Beds for Short-Term Inpatient Psychiatric Care” in North Carolina Insight (forthcoming).

“The Demographics of Aging in North Carolina” in North Carolina Insight (June 2009).

“Emerging Issues Facing The North Carolina Community College System” in North Carolina Insight (April 2008).

“Community Colleges in North Carolina: What History Can Tell Us about Our Future” in North Carolina Insight (April 2008).

“The Picture of Poverty” in Trial Briefs (October 2007).

“Eastern North Carolina at Work: What Are the Region’s Economic Engines?” in North Carolina Insight (February 2006).

“Land, Lines and Levies: A Study of Voluntary Annexations in High Point, North Carolina” (with Suzanne Dowling, Jeff Maxim, and Najeema Washington) in Carolina Planning (Winter 2002).

Policy Reports

“Keeping North Carolina’s Businesses Competitive: A Review of the Incumbent Workforce Development Program, Program Years 2005-2008,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Commission on Workforce Development (Summer 2012, unpublished report).

“Making Performance Funding Work for All,” Chevy Chase, MD: Working Poor Families Project (Spring 2012).

“The Great Cost Shift: How Higher Education Cuts Undermine the Middle Class,” New York, NY: Dēmos (April 2012).

“The Employment Service in Rural North Carolina: Insights from the Great Recession,” Washington, DC: US Department of Labor (June 2011, unpublished report).

“Workforce Development in a ‘Jobless’ Recovery: Assessing the Performance of the Rural Community Mobilization Project,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Rural Economic Development Center (May 2011, unpublished report).

“Improving Access to Work Supports: Strengthening State Policies and Practices,” Chevy Chase, MD: Working Poor Families Project (Spring 2011).

“Widening the Doorways of Opportunity: Philanthropic Efforts to Strengthen Postsecondary Education and Skill Development Systems,” Chevy Chase, MD: Working Poor Families Project (September 2010).

“The South’s Difficult Decade,” Winston-Salem, NC: Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation (August 2010).

“Strengthening State Economic Development Systems: A Framework for Change,” Chevy Chase, MD: Working Poor Families Project (Winter 2010).

“Demand-Driven Workforce Development Models: Background and Issues for the Rural Community Mobilization Project,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Rural Economic Development Center (January 2010).

“Building a Foundation for Family Economic Success,” Chevy Chase, MD: Working Poor Families Project (Fall 2009).

“When Any Job Isn’t Enough: Jobs-Centered Development in the American South,” Winston-Salem, NC: Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation (September 2009).

“Connecting People to Opportunity,” Hickory, NC: Hickory Metro Higher Ed Center (March 2009).

“Charting Pathways to Prosperity,” New Bern, NC: Eastern Carolina Workforce Development Board (March 2009).

“What Happened to the Jobs? A Tale of Two Economic Cycles,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (December 2008).

“New South, Old Problem: Low-Wage Work in the American South,” Boston, MA: Oxfam America (June 2008).

“Making Ends Meet on Low Wages: The 2008 North Carolina Living Income Standard” (with Meg Gray and Jack Schofield), Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (March 2008).

“Poverty: Challenges and Opportunities” in The Triangle Speaks: Improving Health & Human Services in Our Region (Ed. Nathaniel Goetz), Research Triangle Park, NC: Triangle United Way (December 2007).

“Turning HOPE into Opportunity,” Brooklyn, NY: The HOPE Program (November 2007).

“Buddy, Can You Spare a Dime? Putting North Carolina’s Unemployment Insurance System Back to Work,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (March 2007).

“Putting Work First: How Should NC Respond to TANF Reauthorization?” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (September 2006).

“Rethinking North Carolina’s Worker Training Trust Fund,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (August 2006).

Doing Better: Progressive Tax Reform for the American South (Eds. Sarah Beth Coffey and Alan Essig), Charleston, SC: Better South Press (June 2006).

“The Housing Trust Fund: Is State Support Adequate?” (with Amna Cameron), Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (May 2006).

“Time for a Raise? Assessing the Impact of an Increase in North Carolina’s Minimum Wage,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (April 2006).

“North Carolina’s Unfinished Transformation,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (Winter 2006).

“Failing Jobs, Falling Wages: The 2005 North Carolina Living Income Standard” (with Elizabeth Jordan), Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (December 2005).

“Time to Start Climbing: New Census Data Show How Far NC Has Fallen,” Raleigh, NC: North Carolina Budget & Tax Center (September 2005).

“A Young Adult’s Guide to Social Security Reform,” Washington, DC: 18-to-35 (May 2005).

“Why Does It Matter? A Young Adult’s Guide to the Budget,” Washington, DC: 18-to-35 (March 2005).

“The State of Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT)” (with Michael Stegman and Jennifer Lobenhofer), Chapel Hill, NC: Center for Community Capitalism (June 2002).

Labor Market Analysis

“Biannual Review of the North Carolina Labor Market,” Chapel Hill, NC: South by North Strategies, Ltd. (2010-present).

“Monthly Analyses of National, State, and Local Employment Trends,” Chapel Hill, NC: South by North Strategies, Ltd. (2009-present).

Policy Points (blog), Chapel Hill, NC: South by North Strategies, Ltd. (2009-present).

Political Analysis (Selected Articles)

“Southern Metros May Be a Base for Democrats” in The Greensboro News & Record (July 25, 2004).

“Gauging the Size of the Hispanic Electorate” in NC DataNet (April 2004).

“NC’s Catholic Voters: Small but Significant” in NC DataNet (April 2004).

“The Demographic Structure of NC’s Congressional Districts” in NC DataNet (November 2003).

“New Politics in a Metro South” (with Ferrel Guillory) in SouthNow (September 2003).

“Metropolitan Success Equals Election Success in North Carolina” in SouthNow (January 2003).

Opinion (Selected Articles)

“Downturn Runs Too Deep for ‘Cuts Only’” in The News & Observer (June 17, 2009).

“Taking Full Advantage of Our Opportunities” in Spotlight on Poverty and Opportunity (June 2009).

“Burr, Dole Must Push to Extend Jobless Benefits” in The Greensboro News & Record (November 16, 2008).

“Coming up Short in North Carolina” (with Dean Baker) in The News & Observer (May 2, 2008).

“What about NC’s Workers?” in The Charlotte Observer (April 6, 2008).

“UI Modernization Bill Deserves Support” in NC Policy Watch (October 22, 2007, syndicated).

“The Real Reason to Support Higher Education” in NC Policy Watch (February 20, 2007, syndicated).

“NC’s Working Poor Need Help” in The Charlotte Observer (August 14, 2006).

“Leadership Crisis Requires Action” in Philanthropy Journal (May 8, 2006).

“These Families Need Help” in The Charlotte Observer (April 16, 2006).

State of the Union Review in The Greensboro News & Record (February 2006).

“Squaring Views of the Triangle” in The News & Observer (June 1, 2005).

“What’s UNC, These Days?” in The News & Observer (October 25, 2004).

“Boomers and Their Backups” in The News & Observer (August 3, 2004).

“North Carolina Forgets its Roots, Loses Memory” in The Charlotte Observer (May 29, 2004).

“NC’s Deadlock” in The News & Observer (April 15, 2004).

“Values and the Democrats: Going Beyond the Economy” in The News & Observer (October 24, 2003).

“Venture Philanthropy Stirs Change” in Philanthropy Journal (February 7, 2003).

Criticism

Review of Ending Poverty in America in The Greensboro News & Record (June 3, 2007).

Review of End of the Line in The Greensboro News & Record (January 8, 2006).

Review of University, Inc. in The Greensboro News & Record (October 2, 2005).

Review of Master of the Senate: The Years of Lyndon Johnson in Southern Cultures (Spring 2005).

Review of Tar Heel Catholics in Southern Cultures (Winter 2004).

Review of Race and Place in Birmingham in Ethnic and Racial Studies (July 2004).

Review of The Rise of Southern Republicans and The Politics of Cultural Differences in Southern Cultures (Spring 2004).
